MEMO

TO: LAWRENCE L. OTTO
FROM: JAMES C. GILBERT JCG
DATE: NOVEMBER 5, 1991
SUBJECT: CAPTAIN CHARLES DIMSHA

To the best of my knowledge Captain Dimsha is not involved in Scouting in our area. A highly placed and reliable source at Offutt Air Force Base has investigated the possibility and found nothing to indicate Dimsha's involvement. He also said "off the record" that action may be taken in the near future that may alleviate our concerns.

SUBJECT: CHARLES DIMSHA

Dear Larry:

We received information from a Special Agent with the Air Force that there was some concern about Captain Charles Dimsha, who we understand is stationed at Offutt Air Force Base.

Apparently this individual was following young boys to the bathroom at a State County Fair and watching them urinate. There is no indication that he touched any of them, but he was observed and told to move on.

We also understand that he may have been questioned about ten years ago, but was not arrested.

I would like to know if you have anybody by this name who you are familiar with, since there was an indication he was interested in the Boy Scouts. At the present time, we do not find him on our registration file nor on our Ineligible Volunteer File.

Any information you can give would help us in setting up a file which would at least alert us if the individual was trying to become associated with the Boy Scouts. Our indication is that he was born in May of 1949.

Thanks for any help you can give us.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director
